Practice Summary

Alexandra accepts instructions in commercial cases, with a particular focus on employment and regulatory law. She was also admitted as an Attorney and Counselor at Law in the State of New York in 2018. Alexandra has represented both Claimants and Respondents in the Employment Tribunal, in multi-day unfair dismissal, discrimination and TUPE cases. She is often successful in reaching favourable settlements for her clients. Alexandra further accepts instructions in all of Chambers core areas. She is also a member of the Attorney General's Junior Junior Scheme.

Alexandra is dedicated to pro-bono work. Having been a volunteer at FRU since August 2016, she has represented a number of clients in their appeals to the Social Security Tribunal, and in Employment Tribunal cases. She further undertakes work with Advocate.

Experience

Prior to commencing practice, Alexandra worked in-house with a private education institution. This role included working on company mergers, drafting memorandums of understanding, share purchase agreements, shareholders' agreements and nondisclosure agreements. In addition to this, Alexandra was responsible for the institution's litigation, drafting pleadings and acting as its representative in the Small Claims Court.

Pro bono

Further to her FRU and Advocate work, Alexandra has also acted as an advisor for qLegal at the Queen Mary Legal Advice Centre, providing free legal advice and workshops to tech start up companies and entrepreneurs in relation to Company Law and Intellectual Property issues. She first discovered an interest in pro-bono work in 2009 when volunteering for PRAXIS in Athens, Greece, providing assistance and advice to immigrants.
