Brooke Lyne

Year of Call: 2016

blyne@4-5.co.uk

Practice Summary

Brooke is a civil practitioner, specialising in property, housing and public law. Brooke enjoys a busy court practice and accepts instructions to appear in all courts and tribunals. Brooke joined Chambers in October 2018 having been a member of Arden Chambers. Brooke is the Assistant Editor of Encyclopedia of Housing Law and Practice.

Brooke will be appearing in the Supreme Court in January 2019, being led by Jonathan Manning, for a local authority on a homelessness case.

Brooke is a member of Executive Committee of Housing Law Practitioners Association. In this role Brooke has recently represented HLPA members in discussions and meetings with government departments about forthcoming legislative proposals and consultations.

Memberships

- Housing Law Practitioners Association
- Property Bar Association
- Social Housing Law Association
- Administrative Law Bar Association

Qualifications

- Bar Professional Training Course, City University, Outstanding
- Graduate Diploma in Law, City University, Commendation
- BA (Hons.) English, University of Cambridge, 2.1