

Imogen Sadler

Year of Call: 2018

Practice Summary

Imogen is a junior barrister with a particular interest in public and local government law.

She has a busy courtroom practise and is also frequently instructed by government departments and local authorities on a range of public law matters, including representing a number of government departments in court as sole counsel by way of off-panel nomination.

Imogen is currently instructed as second junior counsel to the Undercover Police Inquiry and is frequently instructed as sole counsel to a range of interested persons in inquests including Article 2 inquests.

Imogen has a particular interest in election law and recently appeared before the Privy Council in Dayal v Jugnauth [2023] UKPC 37 (led by Tim Straker KC). She has also been instructed in election law matters as sole counsel.

Memberships

- The Honourable Society of Lincoln's Inn
- Administrative Law Bar Association
- Young Public Lawyers Group

Education

- Christ Church, University of Oxford: Classics, MA (Hons)
 - City Law School: Graduate Diploma in Law
 - City Law School: Bar Professional Training Course
-

Publications

- Traitors, aliens and lords: who is eligible to run for parliament? Arena Magazine (Autumn 2023)
- A Date to Remember - withdrawing election petitions, Arena Magazine (Summer 2023)
- When is a vote a vote? How to decide whether a ballot is spoiled, Arena Magazine (Winter 2022)
- Necessity or Grace? The Requirement for Public Authorities to Follow Decisions of the Courts, Judicial Review, 27:2 (2022)
- Power to grant and remove honours, Law Gazette (June 2022)
- The Correct Protocol? Collective Expulsion and the ECHR, The Young Human Rights Lawyer Journal (2019)