

Guido Carducci

Year of Call: 2016

Practice Summary

International Tenant and Arbitrator 4-5 Gray's Inn Square (London)

Law Professor (Paris), Attorney-at-Law (Rome), Chartered Arbitrator (FCIArb)

Acts as Arbitrator, Consulting and Testifying Expert, Counsel:

Experience as arbitrator: i) in commercial, company, energy, investment, sport, disputes; ii) in English, Spanish, French; iii) under the ICC, UNCITRAL, CAS, ECA, Rules

Experience as expert in national, EU, international law: in various areas (commercial, energy, treaty, etc.) and matters (jurisdiction, applicable law, overriding mandatory rules, sovereign immunity, State responsibility, BITs, ICSID, investment and shareholders, etc.)

Member of three ICC Commissions: Arbitration and ADR, Competition, Commercial Law and Practice

Works in English, French, Spanish, German, Italian:

Activities related to U.S. Law: Professor/Lecturer of U.S. Business Law (2015-Present). ICDR Panel of Arbitrators. ABA Observer "Uniform Commercial Code and Emerging Technologies Committee" Uniform Law Commission. Former Visiting Professor University of Miami. Former Vice-Chair International Arbitration and Litigation Committees, American Bar Association (ABA)

Monographs: Arbitration in France (OUP), Restitution of Cultural Property (LGDJ)

Articles: 50 published in law journals

Chartered Institute of Arbitrators (London): Chartered Arbitrator, Faculty, Fellow (FCIArb)

Panels of Arbitrators: ICDR, CIArb, WIPO, HKIAC, JCAA, BVI, CAS, CMAP, CAIP. Formerly on the ICSID Panels (2007-2016)

American Bar Association: Former Vice-Chair, International Arbitration Committee and International Litigation Committee

Former Chief, International Standards Section, UNESCO (HQ Paris)

Ph.D. in International Contracts and Arbitration Law (Univ.Paris II) / Ph.D. in Comparative Contract Law (Univ.Rome I) / Diploma Hague Academy of International Law

29 rue montagne de l'espérour, Paris 75015 / 184 Via Germanico, Rome 00192 / 4-5 Gray's Inn Square, London