

Siân McGibbon

Year of Call: 2017

Practice Summary

Siân has a busy and diverse practice encompassing all of Chambers' core areas, with a particular specialism in public law. Since accepting tenancy in 2019 she has been recognised by Legal 500 as a 'Rising Star' in public and administrative law, and has appeared in more than a dozen reported cases including four appearances before the Court of Appeal and five before the Privy Council.

She has extensive experience of working as sole counsel and as part of a team. She is direct access qualified and welcomes instructions on this basis in appropriate cases across all her practice areas.

Before coming to the Bar Siân studied law at Oxford University and worked for the Ministry of Justice as judicial assistant to Lord Justice Hamblen (as he then was) in the Court of Appeal, where she was exposed to a judicial perspective on the court's day to day work and proceedings. She maintains a strong academic interest in public law and is currently a postgraduate student at King's College London, where her academic research complements her practice.

Education

- Kings' College London (2020 - Present)
- City of London Law School (2015 - 2016)
- University of Oxford (2012 - 2015)
- Winstanley Sixth Form College (2010 - 2012)