

Senior Practice Manager – Leading Barristers’ Chambers (London)

Apply by midnight 23 November 2023

Competitive salary plus bonus

4-5 Gray’s Inn Square is seeking to recruit an experienced individual for the role of Senior Practice Manager. Working as the leader in a dynamic team, this is an important role that will suit a highly driven and enthusiastic individual, seeking career progression in a fast-paced professional environment.

Here are details about the members you’ll be clerking:

Our barristers have a wide variety of experience in civil and criminal regulatory issues. The members represent and advise companies and individuals on matters relating to:

- Asset forfeiture and recovery
- Bribery & Corruption
- Confiscation and restraint orders in the Crown and High Courts
- Corporate corruption
- Criminal anti-competitive behaviour (for example cartels, insider dealing and market abuse)
- Criminal breach of the employment legislation
- Financial services regulation
- Fraud (both domestic and international)
- Health and Safety
- Intellectual property crime
- Licensing
- Medical regulation
- Money laundering
- Private Prosecutions
- Sanctions (SFO investigations, international state co-operation, and advice on internal investigations and compliance)
- Trading standards
- Tax (VAT fraud)

- Whistleblowing

Our barristers have a wide variety of experience across the scope of white collar crime and financial regulatory issues. Being able to dovetail that experience with their expertise in financial crime, means that they are regularly instructed to advise and act for firms and individuals working in the financial services sector.

The team's work covers internal investigations undertaken by Governments, Banks and other Financial Institutions, both here and overseas.

Members of Chambers frequently advise and appear in complex and sensitive disputes concerning the regulation of financial services professionals and entities, legal professionals, medical professionals, architects, the Police, members of the clergy and sports people, as well as matters regarding public safety, the environment, tax and licensing.

Our members receive instructions from regulated entities and individuals, and appear in a variety of forums, including before:

- The Regulatory Decisions Committee
- The Sports Dispute Resolution Panel
- The Medical Practitioners Tribunal of the General Medical Council
- (CESR) Registration Appeal Panel
- The Fitness to Practise Committee of the General Optical Council
- The Fitness to Practise Panel of the Nursing and Midwifery Council
- The Health and Care Professions Council
- The Royal College of Veterinary Surgeons Disciplinary Committee
- The Farriers Registration Council Disciplinary Committee
- Panels determining allegations regarding Police misconduct
- The Joint Committee on Intercollegiate Examinations Appeal Panel.

Many members also assist with judicial review challenges and appear in the appellate courts, including the Upper Tribunal (Tax and Chancery Chamber), the High Court and above.

If you are interested in making an application, please see full Job Specification and details on how to apply here.

---