

We welcome 5 new members of Chambers

Elisabeth Mason (1999)

A leading international lawyer, social entrepreneur, and philanthropic executive, Elisabeth Mason is the Founding Director of the Stanford Technology, Opportunity and Poverty Lab, the first lab dedicated to leveraging the data and technology revolution to create new, lasting, and low-cost solutions to poverty and inequality in the United States.

Elisabeth's career choices have been purposefully unconventional, but all share a commitment to transformative impact. In addition to practicing law on Wall Street and abroad, she helped establish Shakira's international foundation, worked with Mother Teresa's sisters in a leper colony in India, and crafted children's rights reform with the leaders of a dozen Latin American nations before the age of 25, where she founded and ran Fundación Kukula, an agency serving street youth and a winner of the UNICEF prize for Latin America.

Elisabeth was named "New Yorker of the Year" in 2015 for her groundbreaking work fighting poverty and her work was recognized as Top Ten in the World in Social Good by Fast Company.

Elisabeth holds a BA and MA from Harvard and a JD from Columbia.

Full profile here

Denise Gomez DelSignore (2009)

Denise is an American attorney admitted to practice in New York State (2009) and to federal practice in The United States District Court for the Southern District of New York (2015).

She is a graduate of New York University and the City University of New York, where she earned a full scholarship for her work in civil public interest law. Denise has experience in legal, operational, and regulatory affairs in the non-profit & technology sector in the United States.

Denise now focuses on commercial disputes and arbitrations in Europe and Asia.

Full profile here

Selena Jones (2011)

Selena practises in property, local government and public law. Having previously practiced at a leading set of chambers specialising in crime, she gained significant experience of conducting trials both defending and prosecuting in the Crown Court, Magistrates' Court and Youth Court. This experience compliments Selena's Housing and Property practice.

She is highly valued by lay and professional clients and is renowned for her "fearless approach to defence" and has been commended for her written and oral advocacy by those who instruct her. Selena has been commended by judges as an advocate with "ability, knowledge, principled confidence and strong ethics together with a thoroughly pleasant and highly persuasive manner". She is recognised for her skillful handling of cases involving vulnerable defendants and is described as having a "wonderful aura which makes clients feel at ease".

Full profile here

Alexandra Sidossis (2016)

Alexandra accepts instructions in commercial cases, with a particular focus on employment and regulatory law. She was also admitted as an Attorney and Counselor at Law in the State of New York in 2018. She joined Chambers as a third-six pupil in May 2019, following the successful completion of her pupillage at a civil and commercial set in London. Since commencing practice in 2018, Alexandra has represented both Claimants and Respondents in the Employment Tribunal, in multi-day unfair dismissal and discrimination cases. She is often successful in reaching favourable settlements for her clients. Alexandra further accepts instructions in civil court claims, including RTAs and contracts. She is also a member of the Attorney General's Junior Junior Scheme.

Alexandra is dedicated to pro-bono work. Having been a volunteer at FRU since August 2016, she has represented a number of clients in their appeals to the Social Security Tribunal, and in Employment Tribunal cases. She further undertakes work with Advocate.

Full profile here

Joshua Hitchens (2018)

Josh practises in all of Chambers' specialisms. He is a member of the Equality and Human Rights Commission Panel of Counsel and has acted in a number of public law matters. He has also been instructed to appear before the Privy Council as led counsel in matters relating to chancery, commercial, media and public law.

Josh started his training in a criminal set of chambers before developing an interest and experience in commercial, public, regulatory and media disputes. As such he has a particular knowledge of regulatory and quasi-criminal disputes.

He has advised on a number of Judicial Reviews and appeals to the High Court. Josh also has a strong international element to his practice with particular experience in cases from Trinidad and Tobago.

In his spare time, he enjoys the theatre, sailing and rugby and politics.

Full profile here

GRAY'S INN SQUARE

Putting people and client service first

4-5 Gray's Inn Square
Gray's Inn London WC1R 5AH
DX No 1029 LDE

clerks@4-5.co.uk
Tel +44 (0)20 7404 5252

www.4-5.co.uk